

Professor Alan Brown

Professor Alan Brown is the Foundation Professor of Management at Edith Cowan University's Faculty of Business and Public Management.

He is also Edith Cowan University's School of Management Head and Dubai's e-TQM College Associate Dean of Academics Programs.

He has 29 years of tertiary-level teaching experience, which included tutoring, mass lectures, seminars and supervision of research students.

Over the years he has helped to plan and develop various undergraduate and graduate courses, including MBA programmes and Doctoral Programmes in Business.

His international teaching activities, mainly for MBA programmes, has taken him to institutions of higher learning in China, Singapore, Thailand, Sri Lanka, Indonesia and even a stint in Sabah at Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM).

Among his current active research and research interests are focused on 'Quality Management and Human Resource Management', 'Quality Management in SMEs', and 'Human Resource Management in SMEs'.

At numerous international conferences across the region, apart from presenting working papers, Prof Brown has been invited to be the keynote speaker.

He is a Chartered Member of the Australian Human Resources Institute and Associate Fellow of the Australian Institute of Management.

He is also the National Secretary of the Australian and New Zealand Academy of Management (ANZAM) and was the president of the Industrial Relations Society of Western Australia.